Bill's Got Only a Pair of Queens

Hopes Die Last

You gotta learn something from this
And I'm sure you'll do
This is the part I like
Nothing can hurt you anymore

I remember days together
Waiting for the sun to rise with us
Then I remember frames of nothing
Writing a song to tell you

It was too early for goodbye
Been waiting for you
And now there's something worth to
Try to reach the light and I
Promise again
That I'll be with you

I remember moments in time
When life seemed to wait for us
Than I remember days of anger
Trying to tell you

That day could never be the last
Been waiting for you
And now there's something worth to
Try to reach the light and I
Promise again
That I'll be with you

Now you're stronger
Nothing can hurt you anymore

I swear my dear
I wont give up on this
I swear I'm here
To see you coming back

It's time to wake up
