

Cheaters Must Die

Hopes Die Last

Well you know I was looking for more.
The day you fall that's the thing I adore
Another day, another night
I stand still till the world dies.

Girl you know that this time is for real.
A bite of your heart is becoming my meal.
I told you so don't play with fire.
See you down on your knees is everything I desire.

Now you make me start again.
For all the things I didn't say.
I knew ya, I can tell
By every single word you say.
I knew ya, I can tell
Now you see me, see me walk away
See me walk away.

Choke on the pillow if you don't want to see.
For the whole world you're just a tree without leaves.
What does remain? A bit of fame.
I think you better quit this game of laying.

And I'll straight up to leave shit 'cause I am old and sick.
All you ever wanted was a place to be.
Fuck your vanity and all the thing you say
Because you have gone too far now.

Kill the lights when you're alone.
Face the night, tell me what it feels like.
x2

Now you make me start again.
For all the things I didn't say.
I knew ya, I can tell
By every single word you say.
I knew ya, I can tell.
Now you see me, see me walk away
See me walk away.

Now you see me away, away.
