

Icarus (Halfway Across the Sky)

Hopes Die Last

You're standing out there
The wind caresses the air
It's all grey around
I can't hear no sound
While you take away the leaves from your shoulder

I strive
For you
And I hope your heart didn't stop beating

So close we are
But you've never been so far
I feel like falling down
I just can't hear no sound
When you take away my hand from your shoulder

I can't lie
To you
So I hope this time is gonna be better
I strive
For you
And I hope your heart didn't stop beating

I feel
So empty here
I feel
So empty
So empty
