

Thanks For Coming (I Like You Dead)

Hopes Die Last

It's when i seemed to lose the only thing I care
I realized and saw its light in the night I was beside a sparkling source of life but sometimes I still saw my death behind her smile

I'll be better with no remorse but can I stop seeing you everywhere?
Run away.. things are getting worst Can I stop beliving u'll be there

Lies.. I used to understand them and all this time.. you've never comprehended

How do you feel? I don't believe it's real It seems to be the sweetest thing when the bitter ends...
I'll go crazy for no reason
'cause I can't stop that voice inside my head Anyway... your hands are getting cold so runaway before I start to burn

Lies.. I used to understand them
and all this time.. you've never comprehended
I know why it was so hard to see me
I wonder if by now I can trust my eyes

So, should I stay? Should I tremble and remain?
Or run away... Leaving nothing more to say?

Lies... I used to understand them
and all this time... you've never comprehended
and I know why it was so hard to see me
I wonder if by now I can trust my eyes
