```
Into the rain we'll run out
Under the storm with lightning on its way
Into a tree we'll carve our names and there we'll stay forever
This home was meant for leaving
Slipped out while they were sleeping
Watching, waiting, thinking but never say
All our lives
The fire's burning but it's so so so so cold in here
All this time
The fire's burning but it's so so, so so, so so, so so, so damn cold
So stay up
They're playing our song
So stay up
These paper walls they cage us
Into the street with midnight on its way
Got nothing more than these empty bottles where we'd hide forever
A restless, reckless slow dance
With reckless, restless romance
Waiting, hoping, thinking, but never knowing
All our lives
The fire's burning but it's so so so so cold in here
All this time
The fire's burning but it's so so, so so, so so, so so, so damn cold
So stay up
They're playing our song
So stay up
They're playing our song!
All our lives
The fire's burning but it's so so so so cold in here
All this time
The fire's burning but it's so so, so so, so cold in here
So stay up
They're playing our song
So stay up
All our lives
The fire's burning but it's so so cold
The fire's burning but it's so so cold
Nothing's burning in here
It's so so, so so cold
