

Lately
it's been a struggle
to make up what is left
of my mind

I've been hazy
lazy, listless and trouble
and the crazies they still come for me
in the night

What do they want?
What do they need?
What have I got
that they seek?

Lately
it's been a struggle
to make up what is left
of my mind

I've been hazy
lazy, listless and trouble
and the crazies they still come for me
in the night

What do they want
What do they need
What have I got
that they seek?

Lately
it's been a struggle
to make up what is left
of my mind
