I want to annoy And I'm going to enjoy it And merely 'cause we're bored Merely because we're bored.

'Cause all you do is hope You're all fucking hopers And it's the Lord of the Flies all over again It's the Lord of the Flies all over again

Now who holds the shell will be Caesar You can even have it written on your t-shirt Now who holds the shell will be Caesar You can even have it written on your t-shirt

Here we go
King of the hopers will fall
We're gonna knock down the walls
Singin' the Caesar will fall
We gonna knock down his doors

I've heard it all before And I chose to ignore it There's someone at your door There's somebody at your door

Prepare for the test We'll all get infested Now it's the Milgram device all over again It's the Milgram device all over again

Now who holds the shell will be Caesar You can even have it written on your t-shirt Now who holds the shell will be Caesar You can even have it written on your t-shirt

Here we go
King of the hopers will fall
We're gonna knock down the walls
Singin' the Caesar will fall
We gonna knock down his doors

Hey, Caesar
Yo, Coco
'Ello, geezer
Hey, momma
Can you fly?
Yup
I've heard robins can fly
Whatever
Huh?

We're gonna knock down the walls

King of the hopers will fall

We're gonna knock down the walls Singin' the Caesar will fall We're gonna knock down the walls, knock down the walls

King of the hopers will fall (We're gonna knock down the walls (4x) Singin' the Caesar will fall (knock down the walls (8x)

I'm going to enjoy it
