

I don't feel like loving you no more even time won't heal me, so I don't Can't someone help me to break free from you?
I know I'm better off protecting my love from you

Voices screaming loudly in my head begging me to listen to my heart
Wanting me to stay rather than run away from you
I know I'm better off protecting my love from you

Wanting me to stay rather than run away from you
I know I'm better off protecting my love from you
