

Cake

Idina Menzel

One man's drama is another man's dream
One man's torture is another man's treat
One man's trophy is another's mistake
One man's poison is another man's cake
I'm another man's cake
Listen up

I can thank you for
For believing I was trouble
I can thank you for
The bitterness you showed me
I can thank you for
The freedom that I didn't ask for
Roses and thorns
Steel in my smile

One man's drama is another man's dream
One man's torture is another man's treat
One man's trophy is another's mistake
One man's poison is another man's cake
Yeah, I'm another man's cake

See he treats me like
I'm a beautiful disaster
And he treats me like
I'm all he's ever asked for
See beauty's in the eyes
The eyes of the beholder
Silver linings
(Ain't everything I after?)

One man's drama is another man's dream
One man's torture is another man's treat
One man's trophy is another's mistake
One man's poison is another man's cake
Yeah, I'm another man's cake
I'm another man's cake

I'm hard to handle, well
It's not a crime
I'm hard to handle it
A state of mind
To each his own, you hear?
He thinks I'm fine
Baby, let's face it I've wasted your time

One man's drama is another man's dream (oh my)
One man's torture is another man's treat (is another mistake)
One man's trophy is another's mistake
One man's poison is another man's cake
Yeah, I'm another man's cake (I'm another man
I'm another man's cake)
I'm another man's cake
