

Heaven Is The Place To Be

In Strict Confidence

I'm gonna die today
But no one really cares
I lost my will to live
So why should I stay here

I will pass away from here
Into eternity
I will follow you my dear
The future is unclear

I'm gonna slip away
Into another world
No one knows what to come
Heaven waits or hell

I'll soon be in a better place
Safe and secure
A better place for me to stay
Of freedom and of cure

Heaven is the place to be
After life and death
Heaven means eternity
Evil takes your breath
