Lost In Paradise

In Strict Confidence

Break the silence Look into my eyes Our thoughts are fusing Our souls stay apart

Icy breath on my skin cold glance in your eyes A mysterious dream
Lost in paradise

Your kisses are poison
Your touches are chains
I'm caught in your spirit
Isolating my brains
Wrapped in feverish illusions

Tears burn on my face
Tearing up my shakles
Floating through an empty space

Stealing my senses You're imprisoning me I'm obsessed by your nearness Never set my heart free

Finally I fall asleep
Your arms hold me tight
My soul rooms through the gloom
Longs for another night
Drowned in your embrance
Ocean of ecstacy
Lustful illusions
Are seducing me

Break the silence Look into my eyes Our thoughts are fusing Our souls stay apart

Lost in paradise
