Everything Your Heart Desires

Incognito

Out in Rio, we strolled the Ipanema
And headed for the samba
How could we know, Just what would come at sunset
The day we'll never forget

With Sugar loaf in the distance fading We held the night, and it felt so right No greater feeling have I known Than to watch the sunrise in your eyes Sweet love

Now I got this feeling, it's undenying Gonna give you everything your heart desires Yes I got the feeling, making me feel so good Gonna give you everything your heart desires

Come with me now, let's take a flight to Mexico
Something there I want to show you
Lets take our wings like butterflies, together we can touch the skies
Like Frida and Diego

Through the deserts and the harsh lands baby I hold you tight, it feels so right No greater feeling have I known Than to watch the sunrise in your eyes Sweet love
