

Airplane

Indigo Girls

Up on the airplane
Nearer my God to thee
I start making a deal
Inspired by gravity

If I did wrong I won't do it again
Cause I can be sweet and good and nice
And if I had enemies their friends
I'll hold on to my life with the grip of a vice

And I'm up on the airplane
Nearer my God to thee
I start making a deal
Inspired by gravity

That little spot on the ground is my hometown
I like to call it my home and it's sweet
I'd rather take a seat down there than a throne up here
Up above 30,000 feet
And I'm up on the airplane

I never should have read my horoscope
Or the fortune on the bubble gum strip Saying what you think won't happen will a great thing to read before a trip
On an airplane

Pilot says the big blue sky's like a swimming pool
Big fluffy clouds like a feather bed
But I'd rather have a real pillow underneath my head
Lying in my bed which is in my hometown which is
On the ground
Far from an airplane (my bed my hometown)
Far from an airplane (on the ground my bed my hometown)
Far from an airplane (on the ground my bed my hometown)
On the airplane (on the ground) (I'll be making a deal)
On the airplane (on the ground) (I'll be making a deal)
On the airplane (I'll be making a deal)
