Fare Thee Well

Fare thee well my bright star I watched your taillights blaze into nothingness But you were long gone before I ever got to you Before you blazed past this address

And now I think of having loved and having lost But never know what it feels like to never love Who can say what's better when my heart's become the cost A mere token of a brighter jewel sent from above

Fare thee well my bright star The vanity of youth the color of your eyes And maybe if I'd fanned the blazing fire of your day-to-day Or if I'd been older I'd been wise

Too thick the heat of those long summer evenings For a cool evening I began to yearn But you could only feed upon the things which feed a fire Waiting to see if I would burn

Fare thee well my bright star It was a brief brilliant miracle dive That which I looked up to and I clung to for dear life Had to burn itself up just to make itself alive

And I caught you then in your moment of glory Your last dramatic scene against a night sky stage With a moment so clear that it's as if you're still before me My once in a lifetime star of an age

So fare thee well my bright star Last night the tongues of fire circled me around And this strange season of pain will come to pass When the healing hands of autumn cool me down
