

It Always Ends The Same

Informatik

Believe in nothing
Break every rule
No sense in being
Just another tool
They want to sell you something
You don't need
Drain you of everything until
You start to bleed

No matter what you say
It doesn't mean a thing
You're living in a dream
It always ends the same

No matter what you say
It doesn't mean a thing
You're living in a dream
It always ends...

I don't believe you
I won't comply
You cannot catch me
In your web of lies
If you think that you control me
You're deceived
I won't be bought into this
Mass insanity

No matter what they say
It doesn't mean a thing
They're living in a dream
It always ends the same

No matter what they say
It doesn't mean a thing
They're living in a dream
It always ends...

Some day, some way
The entire world will go up in flames
Some day, some way
No matter what we do, no matter what we say
Some day, some way
The entire world will go up in flames
Some day, some way...
We all die...
We all die...
We all die...

No matter what I say
It doesn't mean a thing
I'm living in a dream
It always ends the same

No matter what I say
It doesn't mean a thing
I'm living in a dream

It always ends...

It always ends...

It always ends...

It always ends, it always ends... the same
