

Ocean City Girl

Ivy

Moving slowly into the setting sun
Keeping secrets away from everyone
Staring out into another world
Tide is rising, but time is standing still

Ocean city girl
Is smiling
Ocean city girl
Is flying

The night is falling; the streetlights start to glow
No one's there when the cracks begin to show
They can't hurt her like she's been hurt before
No one here can get near her anymore

Ocean city girl
Is fading
Ocean city girl
Is saying goodbye

Ocean city girl
Is fading
Ocean city girl
Is saying goodbye

Ocean city girl
Is fading
Ocean city girl
Is saying goodbye
