This Is the Day

Sooner or later she feels the morning come. Isn't it safer -- dark thoughts all gone. What a sensation. She has made it through one more tomorrow. Raising up her eyes to a brand new sky She knows the truth at last --She's never coming back.

She'll be gone.
So many years...
She'll be gone.
Melting away...
She'll be gone -- this is the day.

Someone is walking up to the bedroom door. Hearing him knocking --She knows what it's for. She's at the window wondering why there is no one to save her. Raising up her eyes to a brand new sky She knows the truth at last --She's never coming back.

She'll be gone.
So many years...
She'll be gone.
Melting away...
She'll be gone -- this is the day.

Raising up her eyes to a brand new sky She knows the truth at last --She's never coming back. She'll be gone. So many years... She'll be gone. Melting away... She'll be gone -- this is the day.

Ba Ba Da Da..
