

Du Bringst Mich Um

J.B.O.

You've come in secret
Still and quiet as a thief in the night
Took me by surprise
I can't explain, see
You've tied me up, I'm in your grip
Totally defenseless, unable to resist
You overpower me
I can't fight back

You twist my mind
You cast a totally deadly spell
You take me down, already again
I'm worn out and you're the reason why

You are a thief, you stole my heart
You arsonist-you ignite it
And see it in flames ablaze
Robbed me of my senses, too
You're so criminal, Never would have believed
Against your weapons, I can't win

With you I die a thousand little deaths
With you I find religion
I don't believe in the ten commandments
But I believe with you I go to heaven

You kill me. around my mind.
You hit me death... totally in your spell.
You execute me there... and again a lot.
I am finished and the reason for it is you

With me it's over, see. a nice experience.
