

I Couldn't Want You Anyway

Jack Garratt

Bad times are coming, coming
Good friends are gone
And my eyes keep hoping, hoping
To tell need most?
My faults were full and plenty
And yours tore me up
So it's no wonder I'm thinking really
You're better off
You're better off

And I didn't want you anyway
Don't need reminding I'm yours mistake
No, I couldn't want you anyway
Not anymore
Not anymore

Don't keep the fire burning
When the colds dead and gone
And wait until the warmth starts skipping
And the flames are gone
And the flames are gone

And I didn't want you anyway
Don't need reminding I'm yours mistake
No, I couldn't want you anyway
Not anymore
Not anymore

Don't keep my hope in darkness
Let my mind digress
I know your broken heart has laid my lives to rest
But I didn't want you anyway
No, I couldn't want you anyway
I couldn't want you anyway
Not anymore
Not anymore