

Home Away From You

Jakatta

Hate to hear your heart is breaking
If it's all the same, mine is aching too, no matter where I go
Followed into pure sensation
Together we were formed
Together we were found
What else are we made of?

There's another whole dimension we didn't pay enough attention
to, it keeps laying down

I don't wanna cry anymore
There's too much to lose
Life's harder than ever before
Home away from you

Separated by the distance
Be it on a map
Be it on a mind
Be it in my dreams

Try and draw a fast conclusion
Give my answer now, wrap it up and go, beating this confusion

There's another whole dimension we didn't pay enough attention
to, it keeps laying down

I don't wanna cry anymore
There's too much to lose
Life's harder than ever before
Home away from you

I don't want to cry

And you'll say...

I don't wanna cry anymore
There's too much to lose
Life's harder than ever before
Home away from you

I don't wanna cry anymore
There's too much to lose
Life's harder than ever before
Home away from you
