

You talk of knowing someone
When you know nothing of them.
See only surface details.
You just don't understand.
In answer to your question.
There is no understanding,
There's only different viewpoints
From wherever you stand.
Lazy We won't understand.
We're so lazy.

I could just lie here thinking
Of work I should be doing.
I've feel my headache growing
To the size of the hill.
I cannot see you clearly,
My viewpoints are disjointed,
I'm getting shorter sighted
Just like television.
Lazy
We won't understand.
We're so lazy.
We won't work.
We will not work at something we don't feel familiar with.
We won't work, we will not work.
We're just so lazy.

Make no effort of understanding
Frozen still by your apathy
Receiving messages loud and clear
Lazy
We're so lazy.
We won't understand.
We're so lazy.
Lazy, lazy, lazy
