

Follow Me

Jane Siberry

I want you to love the things you love and even more
Follow me, follow me less gives less and more gives more
Is your love sweeter now than it was before?
Cross purpose love it never flies true love's pure
It magnifies follow me, follow me

It always surprises me when I make you laugh
When you laugh at me follow me, follow me
Makes me want to do it more I like your laugh
It pleases me I see the lake behind the trees
Flashing in ones and twos and threes follow me, follow me

There is nothing you need that you don't have or can't do
I have love and so I stay I have none so I go away
Follow me, follow me you have no love, you need me now
So I go away I free you now I'll see you later on my love
Got to go down to rise above follow me, follow me

You would love to see me now, you'd love to be with me
Follow me, follow me hold me close and don't let go
Don't say yes, don't say no I see the lake behind the trees
Flashing in ones and twos and threes follow me, follow me

There is nothing you need that
You don't have or can't do
