I had a house while you were gone The week after you left me I found a couple acres Near Sarilla Park I had a house while you were gone A house with silver shutters And a driveway laid in marble And thousands of rooms to fill And miles of space to fly And I tried to believe it, It was better without you I was safer alone No, I'd give it all for you I'd give it all for you by my side once more Oh, I'd give it all for you I'd give it all to hold you again To feel I'm completed To know there and then That all that I needed Was you to fight the fear And now you're here I took a trip while I was gone I cashed in all my savings And bought an Eldorado Drove to Tennessee I took a trip while I was gone I drove across the country And I stopped at lots of diners And stared at a million stars And thought I could touch the sky And I tried to believe it, It was better without you I was finally free No, I'd give it all for you I'd give it all for you by my side once more Oh, I'd give it all for you I'd give it cause the mountains I climb Get higher and higher I'm running from time And walking through fire And dreams just don't come true But now there's you God knows it's easy to hide, Easy to hide from the things that you feel And harder to blindly trust What you can't understand God knows it's easy to run, Easy to run from the people you love And harder to stand and fight For the things you believe Nothing about us was perfect or clear But when paradise calls me I'd rather be here There's something between us That nobody else needs to see There were oceans to cross There were mountains to conquer

And I stood on the shore
And I stood on the cliff
And the second before I jumped
I knew where I needed to be
Oh, I gave it all for you
I gave it all for you by my side once more
Oh, I gave it all for you
I gave it cause it's harder to touch
The things that are dearer
I love you too much
To trust something clearer
I know I fell too far
But here you are
