

She's Mine But I'm Not Hers

Jay-Jay Johanson

There was a time when I was playing rough
But nowadays I take it sort of cool
Why do I feel this way
I don't wanna be alone
She's mine but I'm not hers

Everytime we meet it's wonderful
And though she only loves me as a friend
I always want to see her
But I hate to say goodbye
She's mine but I'm not hers

She's mine, she's mine
She's mine but I'm not hers

Now and then I meet her and her man
I must admit I used to like him too
But see them walk together
It just makes me wanna cry
She's mine but I'm not hers

They always keep their tv on at night
So no one in the house can hear them fight
But I've seen the bruises
And I know about the scars
She's mine but I'm not hers

She's mine, she's mine
She's mine but I'm not hers
