All Souls

Jaymay

Eddy was an angry man he lived alone without his fan should've known better but I know that shit can happen, man, to anyone and anyone is you and anyone is me

Eddy was a bitter man who lived alone without a plan he thought he held one in his hand but those were only rubber bands he should've known better, but I noticed this keeps happening to everyone, and everyone is me and everyone is you,

all I want is all I see and all I see is you and me

Eddy was a lonely man who wanted some attention and he posted signs through all the land to say you want but you're no band he found some man who understand position ain't nothing but a lonely man without a friend who's climbing for attention like anyone, and anyone is you

if everyone's like me,
then everyone likes you,
