

Never Be Daunted

Jaymay

what are you so afraid of?
why are you feeling scared?
what's the worst that's gonna happen?

standing in the moonlight
I can tell you feel doomed though nothing is wrong, no nothing you say maybe a crane will fall from the sky maybe a dove will dive

and I before your eyes

it's too early to say
it's too early to say goodnight (goodnight)

it's too early to read
it's too early to read by the firelight

what are you so afraid of?
why are you feeling scared?
what's the worst that's gonna happen?

standing in the meadow
with sunlight in your eye and a sense of so much sorrow

you say maybe a plane will fall from the sky maybe your lover will lie
and I before your eyes

it's too early to say
it's too early to say goodnight (goodnight)

it's too early to read
it's too early to read by the firelight
what are you so afraid of?
why are you feeling scared?
