I Need You More Now Than Ever

Jermaine Jackson

Your the sun that shines when clouds are in the way Your the light of love to brighten up each and every day And you care oh when no one cares at all You are there when I need you All I have to do is call and

I need you more, more now than ever I need you more, as the days go by I need you more, more now than ever Oh without your love I couldn't live I wouldn't even try...

Your the birds that sing You bring love song to me Your the sweetest rose that will ever ever be And you you make the world seem right When everything is all wrong And when I'm weak only you can make me strong That's why

I need you more, more now than ever I need you more, as the days go by I need you more, more now than ever Without your love I couldn't live I wouldn't even try...

Those softly whispered nicknames that only you would know I'll never hear again If you you should ever go

I need you more, more now than ever I need you more, as the days go by I need you more, more now than ever Without your love I couldn't live I wouldn't even try

Whoa oh oh I need you I need you I need you More now than ever Whoa oh oh I need you, I need you, I need you More now than ever Whoa oh oh I need you I need you I need you More now, than ever...
