Been awhile and you see his face So you can't ignore the waste All the empty spaces No one home, leaving only traces

Give up, go 'way
He's not yours to save
And if you decide
He's not that kind
He got a cold piece inside
Cold piece inside

Now you hear that there's something wrong Though it's sad, he lives his song Ever changing Stranded on the notes remaining

Give up, go 'way
He's not yours to save
And if you decide
He's not that kind
He got a cold piece inside
Cold piece inside

In your sunshine
In your sunshine
Where's your sunshine now

In your sunshine
In your sunshine
Where's your sunshine now

Average all, let it in my son
To be, is worth the damage done
You have no halo
Don't spend your time sniffin' round dead shadows

Give up, go 'way
I'm not yours to save
And if you decide
I'm not that kind
He say, give up, go 'way
I'm not yours to save
And if you decide
I'm not that kind
I got a cold piece inside
Cold piece inside

In your sunshine
In your sunshine
Where's your sunshine now

In your sunshine
In your sunshine
Where's your sunshine now

In your sunshine

In your sunshine
Where's your sunshine now

In your sunshine In your sunshine

Where's your sunshine now Where's your sunshine now
