Staring at the starry night
Sitting in my hotel
While the girl of my dreams
Is happy with someone else
Staring at the starry night
Sitting in my hotel
While the girl of my dreams
Is happy with someone else

Said there's no one
That can do it like you do it
Yea you really put me through it
Kay, I lost one
But I'll be searching here forever
Because I'm good when we're together
Yeah I'm so spun
You're the baddest girl I found
Every city, every town
And I'm so gone
With a bottle on the desk thinkin'
Should I send this text

Staring at the starry night
Sitting in my hotel
While the girl of my dreams
Is happy with someone else
Staring at the starry night
Sitting in my hotel
While the girl of my dreams
Is happy

In the long run
Everything just looks the same
It's a pain I can't explain
Girl I'm so wrong
Fuck the money and the fame
Because that shit don't mean a thing
If I go on
Empty roads and scattered shows
Shattered dreams and different hoes
I'll be so gone
With a bottle on the desk I'll be so gone

Staring at the starry night
Sitting in my hotel
While the girl of my dreams
Is happy with someone else
Staring at the starry night
Sitting in my hotel
While the girl of my dreams
Is happy

She's happy
Don't I want her to be happy
Don't I need her to be happy
Oh, she's happy
Oh, happy – without me

Don't I want her to be happy – without me
Don't I need her to be happy – without me
Oh she's happy – without me
She's happy
Without me
