

Game Of Life

Joan as Police Woman

Could this be my fate tonight
That I could be meeting my match
Or does this card I play really have nothing to do
With the game of life
Cause I've thieved
And I feel hated for
All of the tricks that I've played
In the game of life

Will I walk the line tonight
Even though there's something missing
I'm afraid my heart is gone
Left me nothing more than a love for a man
So I'll seethe and I'll slither
Towards your hot lights
Red lights giant exploding
Exploding in the name of life

Will I fall into the arms that cannot hold me
Or will I hit the target
And fall into the arms of you
Of you

Something's got to give tonight
Baby baby I need it to
You are me and I am you
So what's the fuss
I'll seethe and I'll slither
Towards you hot lights
Red light giant exploding in the name of life

Will I fall into the arms that cannot hold me
Or will I hit the target
And fall into the arms of you
Of you
