

Pins And Needles

Joe Ely

I ain't been sleepin', I ain't been eatin'
I've been on pins and needles, waitin' by the phone
You better call me, you better call me
I've been on pins and needles, waitin' by the phone
You better call me or I'll go crazy

I ain't been tryin', I feel like dyin'
I've been on pins and needles, waitin' by the phone
You better call me, you better call me
I've been on pins and needles, waitin' by the phone
You better call me or I'll go crazy

I should've known when you said, "So long"
To run another telephone line
The operator told me said, "Joe, lay low
Before you lose your mind"

I should've known when you said, "So long"
To run another telephone line
The operator told me said, "Joe, lay low
Before you lose your mind"

I feel forsaken, my heart is achin'
I've been on pins and needles, waitin' by the phone
You better call me, you better call me
I've been on pins and needles, waitin' by the phone
You better call me or I'll go crazy

You better call me or I'll go crazy
