Gentle Blues

John Martyn

Underneath the trees
Jelly in my knees
Got the gentle blues
Got me on the floor
Got me screaming out for more
Of your gentle blues.

Trying to get to you all day
I've been trying to get to hear you say
That you're never going to let me lose
My gentle blues.

Never going to lose
My gentle blues
Never going to lose
My gentle blues
Never going to lose
My gentle blues.
