

Carrie

John Miles

One cold and sad affair,
Take my heart and leave it there,
I'm gonna feel this way forever,
Never thought that I'd be free,
Now you've made this change in me,
Carrie, Carrie,

Now only time will tell,
It's a dream I know so well,
Always tried so hard to please me,
Only thing I know for sure,
I couldn't love you any more,
Carrie, Carrie,

Waited so long no one to share,
Could you belong to someone
Show you care,
I'll be there

Oh Carrie, is it more than a dream this time?
Carrie, can I tell everyone you're mine?
I will never be the same,
Now you've made me live again.
Carrie, is it more than a dream this time?
Oh Carrie, is it more than a dream this time?
My heart is open wide,
You know how I feel inside,
You say my sad old days are over.
Never need to hide away,
Getting stronger every day
Carrie, Carrie

Waited so long no one to share,
Could you belong to someone?
Show you care
I'll be there.

Oh Carrie, is it more than a dream this time?
Carrie, can I tell everyone you're mine?
I will never be the same
Now you've made me live again.
Carrie is it more than a dream,

Oh Carrie, is it more than a dream this time?
Oh Carrie, can I tell everyone you're mine?
Oh Carrie, is it more than a dream this time?
Oh Carrie, can I tell everyone you're mine?
Oh Carrie
