Hank And Joe And Me

Johnny Cash

In the desert where we searched for gold The days're hot the nights're cold Hank and Joe and me walked on So bold and brave and free

For days and days we fought the heat I got so thirsty and I got so weak And when I fell 'cause I couldn't go I heard Hank say to Joe

He's dyin' (Dyin' dyin') For water Hear him cryin' (Cryin' cryin') For water

Well lay him down in the dust and sand he said Joe you know he's a dyin' man Leave him there and let him die I can't stand to hear him cry for water

I don't remember how long I lay But when I awoke it was the break of day Buzzards circled miles ahead I knew Hank and Joe were dead

My eyes were dimmed but I could see A bed of gold nuggets under me Now I know that it won't be long Till they decorate my bones

'Cause I'm dyin' (Dyin' dyin') For water Can't help cryin' (Cryin' cryin') For water

Well they laid me down in the dust and sand he said Joe you know he's a dyin' man Leave him there and let him die I can't stand to hear him cry for water He couldn't stand to hear me cry for water
