

Love, Your Magic Spell Is Everywhere

Johnny Mathis

Love, your magic spell is everywhere
Love, I know you well and found you fair
Then you left me and I laughed at fate
Now I ask, "Is it too late?"

Oh love, your melody is in the air
Yet I call you and you are not there
Oh come, here is my heart, my soul to mate
Make me forget the voice that whispers, "Wait"

Love, your magic spell is everywhere
Love, I know you well and found you fair
Then you left me and I laughed at fate
Now I ask, "Is it too late?"

Oh love, love your melody is in the air
Yet I call you and you are not there
Oh come, here is my heart, my soul to mate
Make me forget the voice that whispers, "Wait"
