The Sound of Music

Johnny Mathis

The hills are alive With the sound of music With songs they have sung For a thousand years

The hills fill my heart With the sound of music My heart wants to sing ev'ry song it hears

My heart wants to beat like the wings of the birds That rise from the lake to the trees My heart wants to sigh like a chime that flies From a church on a breeze

To laugh like a brook when it trips and falls Over stones on its way To sing through the night Like a lark who is learning to prey

I go to the hills When my heart is lonely I know I will hear What I've heard before

My heart will be blessed With the sound of music And I'll sing once more
