When the Lovin' Goes Out of the Lovin'

Johnny Mathis

When the lovin' goes out of the lovin' And there isn't a thing you can do But reminisce of yesterdays Second guess her changin' ways And fill your time with people just like you

When the lovin's gone out of the lovin' And there isn't a thing you can say You bite your tongue and wonder why And then you watch your life flash by Hopin' things will turn around your way

There isn't a lovin' thing I can say There isn't a lovin' thing I can do There isn't a lovin' way I can ever reach you How can I walk away and feel free When lovin' you means my whole life to me? There isn't a lovin' way I can ever leave you and be free

When the lovin' goes out of the lovin' And there's no easy way to pretend That anythin' could ever be As good a thing as you and me It's hard to understand this is the end

There isn't a lovin' thing I can say There isn't a lovin' thing I can do There isn't a lovin' way I can ever reach you How could I walk away and feel free When lovin' you means my whole life to me? There isn't a lovin' way I can ever leave you

There isn't a lovin' thing I can say There isn't a lovin' thing I can do There isn't a lovin' way I can ever reach you How can I walk away and feel free When lovin' you means my whole life to me? There isn't a lovin' way I could ever leave you and feel free
