Don't believe a word you said I can't stand the way you do Lordy, Lord I'll wait Comin' home to you

Lord at first I'd rather Sit and listen to you Going down

Stayed out last night And the night before I done changed the lock Woman on my door

Well Lord at first I'd rather Sit and listen to you Well, it's lies that's all

Yeah!

Ohhhh, ohhhh!

Done bought me a ticket The trunk's already gone Lord don't bother Ain't gonna be here long

Lord first I'd rather This be the last of you Goin' down Ohhh, ohhh!
