

I Smell Smoke

Johnny Winter

I smell smoke
You must be burning me behind my back
I smell smoke
You must be burning me behind my back
I can't see the fire,
But I feel the flame
I found the man spark
In another man's name, oh yeah!

Just before you spoke
I smell smoke

What can a man do?
When a good girl turns to bad
What can a man do?
When he's lost everything he ever had
I can't feel the heat,
But I'm seeing in your eyes
When we're talkin over
All I get these lies, oh yeah!

Baby it's no joke
I smell smoke

There's a heavy price
That I have to pay
Working for you
Every night and day
Deep in the night
When I turn to you
I feel my worst fears
Have come true

I smell smoke
When you think you're alone
And nobody is looking, yeah...

I smell smoke
In the middle of the night
And I know nobody is cooking, yeah...

You can play you down
Hide it with perfume
I smell something burning
And you're walking through, oh yeah!

Baby it's no joke
I smell smoke

Oh yeah!

Baby it's no joke
I smell smoke

I smell smoke (4x)
