

Pat's Solo

Joni Mitchell

This is my solo...

Excuse me Sir... would you please take your seat, I'm playing my solo... no I'm serious can't you see I'm playing a solo here?

Hey buddy sit down so I can concentrate on my solo...

Ok that's it, you would think that an artist could play a solo once in a while without any interruptions. Here... you take my guitar and show us what is so important...

What? You work here, you're the usher? Oooooo, sorry, soooo I'll just play my solo then.
