

Goodbye Letter

Jonny Lang

Theres a letter on the table
Ive never seen it thehre before
I dont have to read it
Cause i already know

Its been a long time coming
And ive been awake for days
I kow we can make it
But things have to change

Your words say its hopeless
But i know theres more between the lines

Goodbye
Is this how you want it
Ill leave but i dont wanna go
And ill wait but i cant wait forever
For you to say goodbye

Well maybe im just dreaming but i know dreams come true
And im still here beliveing
That god made me for you

If we could just start over
Get back where we began
We're better off together
It doesnt have to end
