

With Your Life

Joseph Arthur

I'm away
Tonight
The devil will pray
For a fight

I'm driving drunk
But I still see the road
My car is flipping
And it still might explode
But I'm known here

To bite

I'll throw your back
Up against the wall
Nobody here
And nobody to call
Well I'll shut off
Your light

I'm away
Tonight
The devil will pray
For a fight
The Will of God or man
Nobody can know
The jungle laws
And the idiot show
Well I'm watching

For your knife

You got no rights here
You're just a kid
Don't want to hear you
Or about what you did
So just leave now

With your life
