I Saw You

Josh Kelley

I, I saw you
I couldn't think of what to say
So, I stumbled to the bar
And I just froze when I saw your face

I didn't know just what to say to you
And didn't know just who to blame
But I didn't want to face the days alone
For the night I didn't get your name

So I, I tried slow
And whispered softly in your ear
Then I stumbled to your arms,
To set the stage for what I feared

Fade into my life
Never getting it right
Risky fantasies
Made for what you see, inside
