

Tempter

June

I've got a trace of the scent
Get a hold of yourself, but I wanna
Can't get a hold of this
This is temptation at its very best

Tempting every time she looks back
One glance is all it had to take
An advance of a girl no the lust
With the dress in black

Oh, this is terrible
But I'm loving every minute of it
Oh, this is terrible
The stage you set is not as perfect

Clothes on the floor with the bedroom locked
It's all the same, I'm always following this trend
An advance from this game in my life
This has to end

Oh, this is terrible
But I'm loving every minute of it
Oh, this is terrible
The stage you set is not as perfect
Oh, I can't help myself it's true

Hey, tell me every time she looks back
Scheming the scandal, this sin means I'm in
Hey, tell me every time she looks back

I've got a trace of the scent
Get a hold of yourself, but I wanna
I've got a trace of the scent
Get a hold of yourself

Oh, this is terrible
But I'm loving every minute of it
Oh, this is terrible
The stage you set is not as perfect

Scheming the scandal, this sin means I'm in
I've got a trace of the scent

Oh, this is terrible
Please get a hold of it
Oh, I can't help myself it's true
