

Black Refuge

Junip

another ending on your story now i'll have to speak to you from a distance because i tend to forget my duty when i get too close to your resistance say what you have to say i know it isn't you anyway use all the colors that you want to i'll use black

i tend to forget my duty but this time i'll use black
