

I'm In Peace

Justin Nozuka

It always occurs to me, how lovely you look today
Just how you smile that way, makes my heart melt Seemed like just yesterday, when you stole my breath away
You walked into my life, you completed my soul
When you walked into my life, you completed my soul

I'm in peace,
I'm in peace,
I'm in peace when I am with you
You set me free; you're all I need,
Lift me off my feet, beauty queen

Where did you find that soul of yours
You must have traveled through heaven, and searched through the garden of love
I swear there's a light, when your eyes touch me
It's like the sun reaching down from the sky
When you touch me with your eyes, it's like the sun from the sky

Your whispering,
it's uplifting,
Sink into my body while I'm drifting
When you kiss me, really truly kiss me
Connected by our hearts, we are one
