

Stay right here

Kari Rueslåtten

I am so glad you came around
I know I said I needed space
Oh I take that back I am,
not wasting precious time
Now that I've found you,
I'll let you disappear
I can't believe I almost let you walk out of here

Let me take you to the shore, leave the world behind
I know I'm asking much of you and patience is hard to find
You look different than before, sorrow in your eyes
If I could I'd take back the hurting and the lies

Come night or come day,
I want you to stay
Stay awake, stay afloat, stay right here with me

You said my heart was made of stone
You could not reach inside my head
Oh I am so sad about those days
And for not seeing who you were

Now that I've found you,
I'll let you disappear
I can't believe I almost let you walk out of here...
