

Jealous

Karl Wolf

Didn't mean to cause a fight
Babe, I was just jealous
Didn't mean to make you cry
But I was just jealous
When I saw you with a guy
I couldn't resist
Cause I knew this was it
You would leave me for him
Would've told you just to hold me
The reason to worry
Never thought you'd pack
And leave like that in a hurry
We're just going through a phase
But now that you're gone
I know it's too late
When you walked out that gate

Didn't mean to cause a fight
Babe, I was just jealous
Didn't mean to make you cry
But I was just jealous
When I saw you with a guy
I couldn't resist
Cause I knew this was it
You would leave me for him
Would've told you just to hold me
The reason to worry
Never thought you'd pack
And leave like that in a hurry
We're just going through a phase
But now that you're gone
I know it's too late
When you walked out that gate

Didn't mean to cause a fight
Babe, I was just jealous
Didn't mean to make you cry

The reason to worry
Never thought you'd pack
And leave like that in a hurry
We're just going through a phase
But now that you're gone
I know it's too late
When you walked out that gate
(I was just jealous)
