

Isn't It Always Love

Karla Bonoff

I went out for a walk last night
The stars were out and the moon was bright
A little voice inside my head
It hit me hard, this is what it said

Isn't it always love that makes you hang your head
Isn't it always love that makes you cry
And isn't it always love that takes the tears away
And I wouldn't have it any other way

When you find someone that's true to you
Some days are up and oh some days are blue
Just don't go and throw it all away
Wait a minute, you gotta hear what I say

I used to think that love was just a loser's game
And I swore that I'd never play to lose again
But now I know
Now I see
