Heaven is all that I have
Blowing my mind
You don't feel the pain
Lying teardrops crying
In the sky.

We live in heaven though I almost found
Forever dreaming you could always be mine
So well you pleased me and you come and you go
Will you ever remember the time of my own
Forever dreaming the end won't come
By using your magic you fooled with my heart
Oh how you fooled me and showed that you cared
Why do you treat me this way
Are you regret?

Forever dreaming the end won't come
By using your magic you fooled with my heart
Oh how you fooled me and showed that you cared
Why do you treat me this way
Are you regret?
